

Daily Prayer

May 21

Reading:

II Corinthians 4:16 NRSV

So we do not lose heart. Even though our outer nature is wasting away, our inner nature is being renewed day by day.

Prayer:

Dear God, I pray for hope in me, my neighbor and my loved ones, so we don't lose heart. Allow me to pay close attention to my outer nature and in the process come to know my inner nature and its process of renewal when connected to You, our source of life and peace. Allow me to be an agent to that renewal in the world.

Amen
